

The map displays the Kõima area, featuring the Kõima River and several settlements. Key locations labeled include Kõima, Naissoo, Ura, and Kõima. A red line traces a path through the area, likely representing a specific route or boundary. The map also shows various smaller settlements and geographical features, such as lakes and forests.